

(a)

The speed-word mask predicts both aircraft to the time when the leader crosses its threshold, and blocks a speed word whose predicted gap is less than the required distance.

(b)

closest point of approach when both fly straight on:
time, horizontal distance, height difference