

The words of the speed column (in m/s) are laid on a line from 0 to 1. Each word gets a piece as long as its probability.

The word whose piece holds u is said. The same u gives the same word while the pieces are the same; when the pieces change, the same u can fall in another word.